

9168 - Bench

Specifications:

This stylish, well-constructed bench is versatile in accommodation of luggage as well as additional seating. The beautiful oak wood frame with visible natural wood grain and eased edges features low profile arms transitioning to rounded tapered legs and supporting stretcher for stability. A woven rush seat includes a leather seat cushion with leather strap attachments. A 28" wide metal back panel in antique brass finish is mounted above the bench to preserve the wall from any damage due to open and closure of luggage.
